Dear Friends,

Hope arrives every spring with the blooming of daffodils!

Daffodil Days is a nationwide annual event of the American Cancer Society. The daffodil is one of the first flowers of Spring and represents a symbol of hope for cancer patients.

The flowers will arrive the week of March 12-16, 2012. Please place your order by Feb. 13, 2012 with one of the following listed below. Having cancer is hard. Finding help shouldn't be.

We thank you for being part of the hope!
