

Member Benefits

Joining the Ellsworth Area Chamber of Commerce provides you with a variety of benefits, including public awareness of your concern for and support of the community.

Events. Members receive priority participation and discounted booths in Chamber-sponsored events.

Visitor & Resident Guide. Members receive complimentary business listings and discounted display advertising in the annual Visitor & Resident Guide.

Chamber Website. Members receive complimentary business listings on the website's Business Directory. Members have the opportunity to further advertise their business with website links and Member-Member advertising for a low cost.

Weekly News. Members receive weekly news updates via e-mail/website that include special notices, Chamber happenings, Member-to-Member advertising, and upcoming events.

Welcome Bags. Members have the opportunity to place coupons, brochures, catalogs, trinkets, etc. in bags provided to new residents of the area.

Ellsworth Dollars. Ellsworth Dollars promote local spending, and are available for purchase from our Members, the Chamber Office, Associated Bank, Bank Mutual and M&I Bank.

Monthly Meetings. Members are invited to attend monthly networking meetings, usually held on the last Thursday of each month over the noon hour at a Member business. These meetings provide networking opportunities and valuable information from the Chamber and various speakers. Lunch is catered by a Member business for a nominal cost.

Business After 5. Members are invited to attend quarterly events, held after hours at a Member business to showcase their products/services and provide a casual networking opportunity. Refreshments are provided by the host.

Annual Meeting. Members are invited to attend the Annual Meeting, held in November of each year, and featuring board elections. Held in the evening at a Member business, the meeting provides dinner for a nominal cost.

Awards Banquet. Members are invited to attend the Awards Banquet, held in February of each year, as the largest social function of the year. An evening of entertainment, dinner is served and several businesses are recognized with awards for their services/accomplishments.

Committees. Members are eligible to participate in a number of Chamber Committees:

- Ambassador Committee
- Cheese Curd Festival
- Spring Fever Expo
- Harvest Moon Celebration
- Polka Fest
- Industry Council
- Youth Ambassador
- Sesquicentennial
- Board Nomination
- Budget/Membership/Website/Personnel

Sponsorships. Members have the opportunity to sponsor a number of community initiatives through the Chamber. Every level of sponsorship is welcome, allowing the Chamber to continue to serve both the community and its Members.
